Design 1 (EDISI 1)

The image shows a large, rectangular rug with a complex, multi-layered design. The central field features a large, circular medallion with intricate floral and geometric patterns. This medallion is surrounded by several concentric borders, each with its own distinct pattern, including floral motifs and geometric lines. The color palette is rich, featuring deep reds, blues, greens, and yellows on a light background. The rug is laid out on a light-colored floor, and other rugs are visible in the background, suggesting a showroom or a collection of traditional textiles.
